2. Primary topic was the patent clause. Two copies of a draft exclusion were left with [REDACTED] for review by the patent and legal counsels.

3. In addition to this patent clause, their acceptance will probably also contain comments regarding a) extension of time of contract because of delays in initiating work; and b) statement for record on the allowability of costs for special security measures (e.g., safe, partitioning, etc.)

25X1A

4. [REDACTED] hinted at some technical developments of interest to us; they are unable to talk in detail until patent situation is clarified.

5. Their participation with [REDACTED] was discussed briefly. They are working with [REDACTED] on usage of [REDACTED] material as a printing medium, using a selenium drum as original (similar to technique in xerography.) [REDACTED] is apparently in use now, the speed is very low, and is ultraviolet sensitive only.
